Before Applying
- Please prepare to provide the following items for your application:
  - Current Curriculum Vitae (C.V.) or Resume
  - Statement of Purpose
  - Three (3) Recommenders and their email addresses
  - List of psychology courses taken and grades received
  - Copies of official transcripts from all institutions attended
  - Potential Advisor choice in Social Psychology
  - English Proficiency Scores (Non-Native English Speakers)
  - Optional: GRE Scores
Applying to the Program
- Applications are accepted generally from August-December 1st for the following Fall Semester admission.

Applicants Without Undergraduate Psychology Degrees:
- Our program is open to accepting well-qualified students whose undergraduate degrees are not in psychology. For such an individual to qualify for admission, however, he or she should have a minimum of 15 hours of undergraduate credits in psychology courses. Although a variety of psychology courses would be considered acceptable, the student's transcript ideally would include courses in such topics as psychological statistics, research methods and design, abnormal psychology, personality, brain & behavior, social psychology and cognitive psychology. An overall undergraduate grade point average of 3.00 (based on a 4-point grading system) is also preferred for admission to full graduate standing.
